Grandpa, saying goodbye is never easy and I am grateful for all the memories you've left the family and myself. I will miss the walks to the pet store, buying newspaper together in the corner store, helping you with projects, daily activities, and hearing your voice calling me "Kishi". Just know Andrew & I went to school regular because we knew you would always ask. Please look down on us and know the family misses and loves you dearly. Until we meet again, rest easy Grandpa. Namaste.
