Gone with the Wind

Our Beloved and “Larger than Life” Father, has left us on October 9, 2024 at the age of 73. Living recently in Poughkeepsie, NY. He is loved and missed by his children, Peter DeCicco Jr, Marie DeCicco, Joann DeCicco-Rivera, and Keno Thiele. He adored his grandkids (Benjamin, Christian, Janell, Jason-Esteban, Jaxon, Josh, Noah, Ricardo and Sarah). He loved his cousins, like Anthony, Joey and "Roe"; and his many friends including Joseph C, Gilbert F, Louie M & Gladys F and countless others. He adored & loved his siblings that have predeceased him, Roseanne, Barbara and Tony. He missed his mother Marie Thiele and his grandmother Anna Sasso for whom he held in high esteem. His passions and hobbies included raising his beloved dogs & making homemade greeting cards, crocheting, writing poetry and drawing. He also enjoyed watching murder mysteries, Marilyn Monroe films or classic movies, like his favorites "Gone with the Wind" and "Gypsy". He also enjoyed growing plants and flowers. He worked at Creedmoor Psychiatric Hospital in Queens for 25 years. He volunteered at not-for-profit charitable thrift stores and Narcotics Anonymous (NA). He gave a lot of his life to helping those in NA and recovery. He is Gone with the Wind, Gone like the Wind, a true hurricane.....

JoAnn, I don't know if you remember me, but I was a friend of your brother, Peter Jr. Just last night, your father's name popped into my mind, and something compelled me to look him up. Discovering his obituary left me with a heavy heart. I was deeply saddened to learn of his passing. Please accept my heartfelt condolences for you and your family during this incredibly difficult time. Your father was a truly remarkable man, full of life and laughter. His infectious spirit always brightened the room, and I can still picture him with his beloved chihuahua, Jezebel. May he rest in peace, and may you find comfort in the love and memories you shared. You are in my thoughts. Warmest regards, Ray
