My Mamoo/Uncle, Rambharose Panday, Rama, Ronald was a true family man. He had his own way of showing love, and he filled our lives with countless memories that will stay with us forever. He had a real gift for fixing gadgets and gizmos. Since I was little, I admired him—always soldering, tweaking, and working on logic boards Or MOBOs. I wanted to be like that too, and in many ways I did. His inspiration led me down my own self thought path of building and fixing broken tech, and I'm so proud to say that was because of him. I'll forever be honored to be his baby nephew, his legit blood. I'll always cherish the wisdom and laughter he shared with me. Even when I messed up, he didn't need to raise his voice—his eyes said everything, sometimes with a smile. In the recent events Every time I went to Queens, my first stop was always my Mammo. Even if I came alone, it was my priority. We'd talk while I rubbed his feet and helped him exercise his legs. And without fail, he always asked about Kim. Now there's no more pain, Mammo. He left behind a legacy of love, strength, and family. Fly high and proud. I love you. I will miss you more than anyone can imagine.

Our loving brother's Rambharose Panday - Rama was very quiet and loving. It was very heartbreaking ,my brother call me the day before my birthday, he call me 26 instead of 27 th January, 2024. Never in a moment I think that will be the last conversation I will ever had with my big brother. Now he fell on my birthday 27th January I will never ever forget, I never dream or imagine my brother will leave us at the age of 65. I know I have a lot of memories with him to treasure, at one time he live with us for a few months in NY. I try my best to do lots of things for my brother. He was a good uncle to Aaron. Aaron had a lot of fun with his uncle, he look out for Aaron, he was just about 3 years old. He has pictures of his uncle holding him ect. It hurts sometimes when we couldn't talk to him as much as want. Dad's and Mom's try to see him as much as possible. He had regrets but circumstances was beyond him. Growing up in Guyana from place to place was a challenge for us siblings, but childhood days are the best, getting into trouble was memorable to us siblings. Dad & mom try to give us everything we needed. Farming works was hard but fun in many ways. Rama likes to make good provisions for us, his favorite food. (cassava, eddoes, plantain, bread fruit, he likes to fry it up with butter.I can continuing to write On and On about Rama the memories and moments of his Life's.May he rest in peace We know he will be joining our loving Dad' Nohar and our loving Mom's Ghano in Heaven .Love Always Your Love Ones you TouchEspecially Sattie and Aaron
